

The City of Pueblo is accepting applications for a full-time Police Patrol Officer through November 12, 2017. This is a FLSA non-exempt position under the general supervision of a Police Sergeant. This position exercises a high degree of discretion, trust and confidence performing skilled police work by critical public contact. The duties involve police patrol, criminal investigations, traffic laws / regulations, related criminal law enforcement activities and a wide variety of community services. Employees in this classification work in partnership with the community to identify and resolve issues, to provide public safety to the community, and to maintain peace, safety and order. Employees must exercise considerable judgment, initiative, and skill in a variety of situations and must be able to act without direct supervision in completing work.

This position requires employees to work in highly stressful, emergency situations where injury or death of individuals might occur as a result of an error.

This position requires:

- A good driving record and ability to operate a motor vehicle under adverse conditions
- Aptitude for police and investigative work
- Strong communication skills
- Dedication to public safety
- High moral standards and a high degree of integrity
- Emotional stability and ability to deal successfully with an excessive amount of stress

This job description is an overview and is intended to describe the general nature and level of work being performed. It's not intended to be an exhaustive list of all the functions and tasks required of the position.

To review the complete job description, minimum qualifications, education waiver, and submit an online application, please go to www.pueblo.us/jobs.

Physical Ability Test:

Individuals who are accepted into the application process will be required to pass a physical ability test, which is scheduled between 11/27/2017 and 11/29/2017. Visit our web site at <https://www.pueblo.us/2202/Police-Patrol-Officer> for additional information.

Written Exam:

The candidates who pass the physical ability test will be invited to take a written exam, which is scheduled for 12/4/2017.