

Deputy Executive Director Housing Authority of the City of Alameda

The Housing Authority of the City of Alameda (Alameda Housing Authority or AHA) is conducting a San Francisco Bay Area search for a talented and dedicated professional to serve in a newly created position of Deputy Executive Director. The selected candidate will assist the Executive Director in the overall administration of the Alameda Housing Authority, an agency that is a highly progressive and high performing leader in the region as well as financially strong. The AHA is a medium-sized, highly active, and high performing housing authority and is a progressive and growing organization. With an increase in staffing of approximately 25% over the past 5 years, there are currently 59 FTE staff. The AHA has 573 units in its portfolio and 1,845 vouchers. Preferred qualifications include a Bachelor's degree in business, public administration, public policy, finance, or a related field. A Master's degree is preferred. Top candidates will have a minimum of seven years of increasingly responsible administrative experience in the development, planning, implementation, and/or operation of public sector or affordable housing programs, with at least three years of experience in a significant management capacity in an urban public agency or affordable housing agency. Five or more years of supervisory experience of exempt and non-exempt staff is required. Supervisory experience in the public sector is encouraged. The annual salary range is $151,464 to $184,104 DOQ. AHA offers an outstanding benefits package including CalPERS retirement. Interested candidates should apply immediately. Electronic submittals are strongly preferred to apply@ralphandersen.com and should include a compelling cover letter, a comprehensive resume, and five professional references. Confidential inquiries welcomed to Greg Nelson at (916) 630-4900. Recruitment brochure available at www.ralphandersen.com.