

TAMIR WHEELER-WEAVER

Tamir is a graduate of Seton Hall Prep, West Orange, New Jersey. Tamir was a member of the track and field team, and has volunteered with the West Indies Organization Fundraiser where money was raised for Haitian Relief, Wounded Warrior Project and Sampson's Lodge #66, turkey and coat drive. Tamir was a peer leader at his school where he watched approximately twelve freshmen each day and mentored them about school life, academics, and personal problems they faced outside of school. Tamir participated in an internship at the Essex County Prosecutor's office where he learned about the different law enforcement and legal agencies including the DEA, ATF, and FBI. Tamir participated in a one-week program where he learned what cadet troopers endured while at the State Police Barracks in Sea Girt, New Jersey. From this experience Tamir hopes to acquire a job within the FBI or CIA upon graduating from college. Tamir plans to attend either the University of Central Florida, Rutgers University, Loyola University, or St. John's University in the fall. Tamir is the son of Roy Weaver and Palmar Amos.

BENJAMIN WILLIAMS

Benjamin is a graduate of Pinecrest High School, Southern Pines, North Carolina. Benjamin has volunteered with the American Red Cross, and has tutored youth in elementary school. Benjamin is the president of the Youth Choir, and has served as usher at his church. Benjamin plans to attend Appalachian State University, Boone, North Carolina, where he plans to major in Juvenile Justice or Criminal Law. Benjamin has a passion for helping children and those that may not be able to help or protect themselves. Benjamin feels that working in law enforcement would give him the most opportunities to help others. Benjamin is the son of Russell and Lisa Williams.

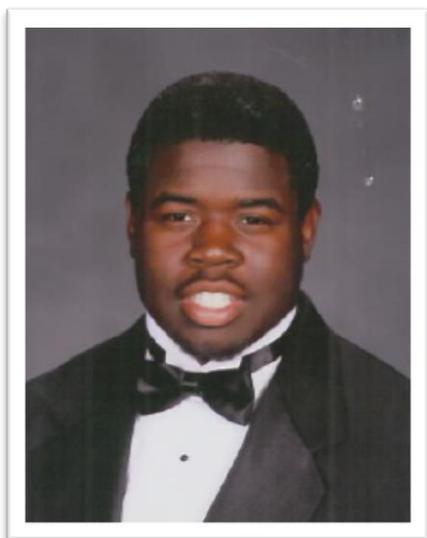

MAILA SUPERVILLE

Maila is a graduate of Pompano Beach High School, Pompano Beach, Florida. Maila's school counselor stated, "Maila has strong motivation, a great sense of purpose, and a concern for helping the community." Maila was a member of the St. Benedict's Liturgical Dance Team, team leader and choreographer, and a member of the Junior Daughter's of the King. Maila plans to attend The University of Central Florida as an International Studies Major. Maila plans to gain knowledge about the world, politics, it's culture and exactly how it operates with all of the countries and continents. Maila is the daughter of Paulette Earle-Superville.

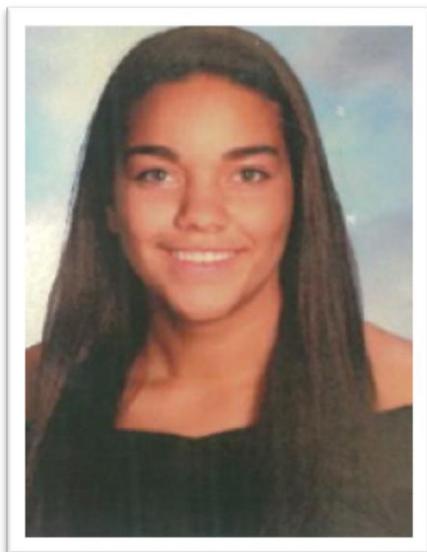

KAHLIL ANDREWS

Kahlil is a graduate of Gahr High School in Carson City, California. Kahlil guidance counselor stated that he is a very caring person that is willing to help his peers become successful and productive people in life. Kahlil has been a volunteer coach for Carson City Park and Recreation program, where he taught team value. He has also been a mentor for the Alpha Phi Alpha Esquire Program where he mentored young men from 8th to 11th grade on the importance of education. Kahlil was a member of the National Honor Society. Kahlil will be attending Fisk University in Nashville, Tennessee where he plans to pursue Civil Engineering. He is the son of DeShon J. and Nicole N. Andrews.

DEANDRE THOMAS

Deandre is a graduate of Auburndale High School, Auburndale, Florida. Deandre plans to attend Graceland University, Lamoni, Iowa, where he plans to major in American Government/History with a minor in Criminal Justice. Deandre was the captain of the Varsity football team, member of the weight lifting team, wrestling team, Novous 517 which is a youth group at the First Baptist Church, and a member of the fellowship of Christian athletes since 2010. Deandre has volunteered at Alfred Community Service project, Chauncey Davis Football Camp and Loving Lake (where he helped Lake Alfred residents with lawn maintenance, painting, car washing, and overall cleanup of the community). Deandre was awarded the Certificate of Appreciation for Volunteering in 2012. Deandre is the son of Steve and Millisa Thomas.

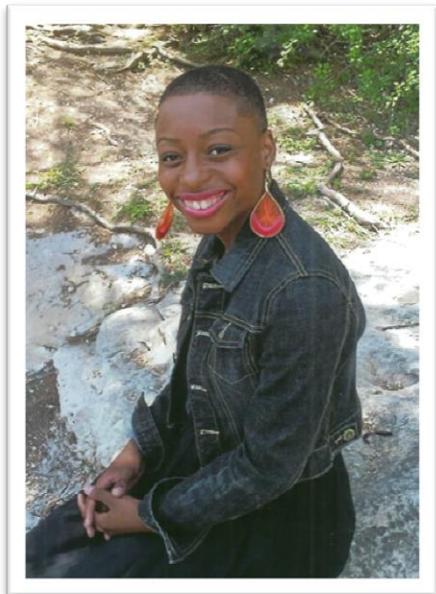

JAZMINE MEGGETT

Jazmine is a graduate of Dumont High School, Dumont, New Jersey. Jazmine plans to attend Quinnipiac University where she plans to major in Forensic Accounting. Jazmine has volunteered at the Trenton Area Soup Kitchen, where she served as a tutor in the adult education program working one on one with an adult student and worked in the kitchen with prep work and the serving line. Jazmine serve as a member on a committee of volunteers with the Juvenile Conference Committee. She and other members were sworn in by a Bergen County judge that looked at first offender court cases. The job of the committee was to make recommendations of the punishment. Jazmine also volunteered with the Youth Council for the Homeless, Community Food Bank of New Jersey, Center for Food Action, Cresskill Women Club and the Bergen County Department of Parks. Jazmine is the daughter of Tracey McAuliffe.

NAYELY MARTINEZ

Nayely is a graduate of J.B.S. Law Magnet High School, Dallas, Texas. In the fall Nayely plans to attend St. John University, New York City where she will major in Criminal Justice. During Nayely first year of high school she joined Skills USA (a student run organization for criminal justice students). Nayely participated in criminal justice competitions such as felony traffic stops, arrest procedures, and officers' safety where she won various awards for her performances. Nayely became the District 6 president the following year. Nayely planned conferences, set up fundraisers, and community service projects for the school. She took this responsibility and guided her members with knowledge and humility. Nayely is a member of the National Honor Society, participated in the Eagle Mentor Program, and the annual open house. Nayely has volunteered at soup kitchens, collected clothes and toys for children. Nayely is the daughter of Efrin Martinez and Maria A. DeLima.

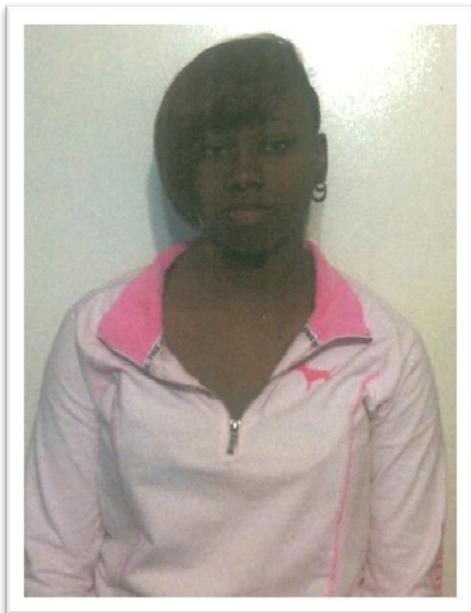

ALAYNA GARNER

Alayna is a graduate of Cedar Hill Collegiate High School, Cedar Hill, Texas. Alayna plans to attend Bryn Mawr College, Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania where she will major in Middle Eastern Studies with her long term goals is to work for the FBI or CIA. Alayna was elected as the Historian for the National Honor Society and has been instrumental in increasing student participation in attending the meetings and activities by working as a liaison between the students and the counselor. She was president of the poetry club where she demonstrated strong leadership skills with no problem. Alayna organized school events, conducted meetings and made decisions crucial to the success of the club. Alayna was ranked #2 in her class and maintained a 3.9 GPA. Alayna is the daughter of Chareese Whitaker.

CARMAY S. CLAIBORNE

Carmay is a graduate of Inkster High School, Inkster, Michigan. Carmay was a member of the Ivy League Academy dual enrollment program between the high school and the University of Michigan at Dearborn. Carmay maintained a 3.9 GPA, and ranked 7th in her class of 210 students. Carmay is involved with her church and the community. She has volunteered at the local food bank, March of Dimes, Detroit Rescue Mission, Coates for Kids, Standup Against Bullying Rally as well as assisted the school board campaign. Carmay plans to attend Eastern Michigan University in the fall. Carmay is the daughter of Cerano and Cheryl Claiborne.

ROBNISHA MURRAY

Robnisha is a graduate of Waggener High School, Louisville, Kentucky. Robnisha plans to attend Eastern Kentucky, Richmond, Kentucky, where she will major in Criminal Justice. Robnisha is a member of the National Honor Society, Beta Club, Key Club, school dance club, Spanish Club, and the cheerleading squad. Robnisha has volunteered by tutoring young children who attend the after school program, teaching at Memorial Baptist Church (Vacation Bible School), Boom-Squad Inc., a non-profit youth development drum line organization, youth assistant, peer tutor, and concession stand worker. Robnisha is the daughter of Melody Sawyer.